演講公告

演講人：Daniel Sokol (佛羅里達大學萊文法學院教授)

演講題目：A synthesis of global developments on digital platforms

時間：108年8月1日（星期四）下午2：30～4：10

地點：公平會13樓簡報室

演講大綱：

The emerging digital economy has created new challenges for antitrust enforcement. The competition authorities are trying to seek for new tools or standards that might help with effective enforcement. Recently, the UK has published a report entitled “Unlocking digital competition” (known as the “Furman report”). This speech will cover the content of the report as well as the comparison and contrast the institutional design issues (to create a new digital agency or design a digital competency within competition authority) that seem to be at play in the UK , Australia, Brazil, Germany, US, DG Comp, JFTC. Additionally, this speech will also discuss those issues that have not yet received much enforcement attention, such as the FinTech and Internet of things(IoT).
